Apartment Building Project on Large Plot in Dali

€300,000 +VAT

Dali, Nicosia

Offering exceptional potential in the tranquil setting of Dali, this incomplete apartment building on a large plot presents an exciting opportunity for developers and discerning investors looking to bring a custom residential vision to life.

Positioned on a generous parcel of land, the existing structure provides a solid framework ready for completion and bespoke interior styling. The expansive footprint allows future owners to tailor layouts to modern standards, creating bright, spacious living units that maximize natural light and capture peaceful neighborhood views. Whether designed as high-demand rental residences or stylish private homes, the underlying foundation offers remarkable flexibility to finish the building to your exact specifications.

Nestled in the established and welcoming community of Dali, residents will enjoy a relaxed suburban lifestyle while remaining conveniently connected to key transport links, making daily commutes to central Nicosia and neighboring
